

Lonely Bear: BBW Paranormal Shape Shifter Romance (Bear Bluff Clan Book 6)

Lonely Bear is set in Bear Bluff and can be read as a standalone story. Curvy girl Chloe has just found her fiancé, Jerry, in bed with another woman. Worse, he only dated her and asked her to marry him, so that he could get a promotion from her father. Now he has a new job, Chloe is surplus to requirements. Her father seems more concerned about losing Jerry as a potential son-in-law, than he does about how upset Chloe is. So she escapes, for a few hours into the mountains around Bear Bluff. In the hope that the cool clear mountain air will give her the strength to take the engagement ring off her finger and let go of all her dreams of a family and happiness. But an accident leaves her injured, stuck on the side of a mountain as night draws in. Just when things can't get any worse, she hears the lonely call of a bear. Problem is, that bear is getting closer. Imagine going to an engagement party and realising that the happy bride to be is your bond mate. That's what happened to bear shifter Nate. Unable to endure the heartache of watching his mate get married, Nate had run away to his mountain cabin to escape. Now she is here, on his mountain, and she's hurt. The bond means he can never hurt her, never cause her unhappiness. So he has to rescue her and then take her home, back down the mountain, even if that means she will walk down the aisle with another man and leave him alone for ever. Only the engagement ring on her finger stops him from claiming what is rightfully his. Lonely Bear contains scorching hot scenes and is meant for adults only.
