

I am Beautiful

I am Beautiful

By Rupi Rajwan

Beautiful is inside you; beautiful is you, everyday. I believe we need to show the meaning of beautiful to children at a younger age. My education entails a Bachelors of Arts in Child and Youth Care and a Diploma in Early Childhood. This Project: I am Beautiful, all came about after my three and a half year old daughter made a comment, I am beautiful...only in a dress. I was quite surprised of her comment, and realized even though my daughters surroundings and influences were well balanced (she plays with dolls and trucks), somewhere, somehow she had learnt that beautiful was only in a dress. There has been many discussions in the media in regards to beauty and how it affects youth, and teenagers all the way into their adult life. However, it sparked an idea in my head! Due to my educational background coupled with my experience in Early Childhood, I am aware of the first five years of a child's life, are the foundation to create knowledge for a child. Why not, create the meaning of Beautiful at a young age? Why not establish the inner meaning of Beautiful at a young age? With the help of a few friends and family, I created this book. Not only the book, but the pictures as well. I wanted to portray beautiful naturally not edited to be perfectly beautiful. Yes, professional pictures are beautiful, no doubt! However, the message I would like to create is Beautiful is inside you; beautiful is you, everyday.
